

Studies in Educational Evaluation R-1284

CONTENTS

Volume 37, issue 4, 2011

ACCOUNTABILITY SYSTEMS AND THEIR EFFECTS ON SCHOOL PROCESSES AND STUDENT LEARNING

Guest Editor: Katharina Maag Merki

- | | | |
|---|-----|--|
| Katharina Maag Merki | 177 | Special issue: Accountability systems and their effects on school processes and student learning |
| Esther Dominique Klein and Isabell van Ackeren | 180 | Challenges and problems for research in the field of statewide exams. A stock taking of differing procedures and standardization levels |
| Svenja Mareike Kühn | 189 | Exploring the use of statewide exit exams to spread innovation—The example of context in science tasks from an international comparative perspective |
| Katharina Maag Merki | 196 | Effects of the implementation of statewide exit exams on students' self-regulated learning |
| Marko Neumann, Ulrich Trautwein and Gabriel Nagy | 206 | Do central examinations lead to greater grading comparability? A study of frame-of-reference effects on the university entrance qualification in Germany |
| Sandy Taut, María Verónica Santelices, Carolina Araya and Jorge Manzi | 218 | Perceived effects and uses of the national teacher evaluation system in Chilean elementary schools |
| Herbert Altrichter, Johann Bacher, Martina Beham, Gertrud Nagy and Daniela Wetzelhütter | 230 | The effects of a free school choice policy on parents' school choice behaviour |
| Melanie C. M. Ehren and Marlies E. Honingh | 239 | Risk-based school inspections in the Netherlands: A critical reflection on intended effects and causal mechanisms |